

ERN RARE-LIVER ACADEMY

Programme

Day 1

14 March 2024

8.30-8.45	Introduction of school	Marianne Hørby Jørgensen Rigshospitalet Copenhagen Faculty and delegates
8.45-9.10	Quiz for delegates	Delegates
9.10-9.30	Biliary atresia	Vibeke Brix Christensen Rigshospitalet, CPH
9.30-9.50	Cholestatic liver disease including genetic cholestatic disorders	Björn Fischler Stockholm
9.50-10.10	Inborn errors of metabolism	Mette Ørngren Rigshospitalet Copenhagen
10.10-10.40	Coffee break
10.40-11.00	Autoimmune liver disease	Henriette Ytting Hvidovre hospital Copenhagen
11.00-11.20	Paediatric liver transplantation	Miriam Cortes Kings college hospital, London
11.20-12.00	Introduction to group project	Faculty and delegates
	Participants are divided into groups of 4 and each group is assigned a complex clinical case with 6 questions and a tutor. Participants must address the 6 questions (one per each student) via PowerPoint slides, according	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Biliary atresia</li> <li>• Cholestatic liver disorders</li> <li>• Inborn errors of metabolism</li> <li>• Autoimmune liver disease</li> <li>• Liver transplantation</li> </ul>

	to a strict format. Each will present as a teacher to the other groups.
12.00-13.30	Lunch break
13.30-13.50	Biological aspects of pubertal development and interaction with liver disease	Marianne Samyn Kings college hospital, London
13.50-14.10	Challenges during adolescence including mental health, non-adherence to treatment, etc.	Kirsten Boysen Rigshospitalet Copenhagen
14.10-14.40	What is it like to be a young person with liver disease? What about the parents?	Expert patient facilitated by Ena Thompsen Rigshospitalet Copenhagen
14.40-15.00	Coffee break
15.00-17.00	Group project	Faculty and delegates

Day 2

15 March 2024

8.30-9.00	How to look after a young person with liver disease (Transition, MDT, lifestyle)	Paediatric Ruth de Bruyne, UGent, Belgium Adult Deepak Joshi, King's college hospital, UK
9.00-10.30	Group case presentation and discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Biliary atresia</li> <li>• Cholestatic liver disorders</li> <li>• Inborn errors of metabolism</li> </ul>	Delegates
10.30-11.00	Coffee break
11.00-12.00	Group case presentation and discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Autoimmune liver disease</li> <li>• Liver transplantation</li> </ul>	Delegates
12.00-12.30	Quiz for delegates	Delegates
12.30-13.00	Closing remarks	Faculty

End